On October 7, 2010, ModusLink Global Solutions, Inc. ("ModusLink") sent the following letter and attachments to all of its employees:

Dear Colleague:

Earlier today, LCV Capital Management and Raging Capital Management, two hedge funds who own shares of our company announced that they have nominated three individuals to stand for election to the Company's Board of Directors at ModusLink's 2010 Annual Meeting of Stockholders. In response, ModusLink has issued a press release, a copy of which is attached for your information.

ModusLink's directors are all highly qualified and committed to represent the best interests of all ModusLink stockholders. Members of our Board's Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee are in the process of evaluating the qualifications of the three nominees.

Our Board and management team are firmly committed to creating value for all stockholders. We have a longstanding policy of open communications with our stockholders and welcome their input toward the shared goal of improving long-term value. Steve Crane and I have met with LCV and Raging Capital representatives on numerous occasions, and throughout the discussions we gave these funds every indication that their concerns could be resolved in a manner that would be beneficial to all stockholders.

As the 2010 Annual Meeting nears, there may be increased attention on ModusLink from the media, stockholders and other interested parties. As always, please forward any calls or emails you may receive to Bob Joyce, Director, Investor Relations at 781-663-5120, or ir@moduslink.com.

I want to emphasize that this matter should have no effect on your day to day responsibilities and I ask you to remain focused on delivering the outstanding services our clients have come to expect from ModusLink.

The Board and management team are focused, as always, on doing what is best for the company, our stockholders, clients, partners and, of course, you, our valued and dedicated employees. Thank you for your commitment to making ModusLink the supply chain management services leader that it is today.

Sincerely,

Joseph C. Lawler
Chairman, President and Chief Executive Officer

ModusLink Responds to LCV Capital Management and Raging Capital Management

WALTHAM, Mass., October 7, 2010 — ModusLink Global Solutions^(TM), Inc. (NASDAQ:MLNK), today issued the following statement in response to the public letter from dissident hedge funds, LCV Capital Management, LLC, Raging Capital Management, LLC and certain of their affiliates:

ModusLink values the opinions of all stockholders and strives to maintain an open dialogue with them. To that end, members of ModusLink's senior management have met with LCV and Raging Capital representatives on numerous occasions, and throughout the discussions the Company gave these dissidents every indication that their concerns could be resolved in a manner that would be beneficial to all stockholders.

ModusLink's directors, six of seven of whom are independent, are all highly qualified and committed to represent the best interests of all ModusLink stockholders. Consistent with their fiduciary duties, members of the Board's Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee have interviewed each one of the dissident nominees and are in the process of evaluating their qualifications.

ModusLink recommends that stockholders defer making any determination with respect to the letter from LCV and Raging Capital, which distorts the Company's record on a number of matters, until they have been advised of the Board's evaluation of the dissident's nominees and proposals.

ModusLink remains firmly committed to creating value for all its stockholders through the successful execution of the Company's strategy. The Company's Board and management have taken actions to improve the financial and operational performance of the Company and create value for stockholders, including:

- Investing $55.3 million to repurchase shares since early fiscal 2008. In total the Company has purchased 5.6 million shares, which represents 12% of the fully diluted outstanding share count at the time the program was first announced.
- Effectively managing through a very difficult economic environment, taking decisive actions to reduce expenses and maintain a strong balance sheet.
- Focusing on maximizing profitability, resulting in record free cash flow from operations in fiscal 2010.
